

The European University Association (EUA) represents more than 800 universities and higher education associations in 47 countries. Located in Brussels, the EUA secretariat is comprised of around 35 staff members; EUA's mission is to promote the development of a coherent system of education and research at the European level through studies, projects and services to members.

EUA is currently offering a

Digital Communications traineeship

EUA is looking forward to welcoming a new graduate trainee to support the work of its Communications Unit.

Main responsibilities:

- Providing high quality visuals and graphics to support social media and website work
- Videoring and editing interviews
- Supporting the Communications team in additional activities

The successful candidate will:

- have a Master's degree in digital communications, multimedia production or any subject relevant to the traineeship
- possess strong technical skills (Adobe Premiere, Adobe Creative, video editing software, etc.)
- be fluent in English (spoken and written); good knowledge of another European language would be an asset
- be a dynamic team player, with excellent organisational and communication skills

The Association based in Brussels offers a six-month traineeship with a monthly stipend in a fast-moving and friendly international environment. As it will be a "professional immersion" contract defined by Belgian law, you should have the right to work and live in the EU to be considered for this opportunity.

A CV and letter of motivation (online portfolios are welcome) should be sent to Christel Vacelet at the following email address: christel.vacelet@eua.be by 7 November 2016. EUA regrets that it is not able to acknowledge all applications received. Please note that only suitable candidates will be contacted for an interview in Brussels or via Skype.
